

REVELATION – OUR FIRM HOPE

dr matthew jacoby

thrive

AUG-OCT 2025

LIVING LIFE AS GOD INTENDED

thrive

PODCASTS

FREE

SPOTIFY PODCASTS

APPLE PODCASTS

YOUTUBE PODCASTS

OR SEARCH ON YOUR FAVOURITE PODCAST APP

Thrive: Deeper

Thrive Deeper is a companion product to the Thrive Daily Reading Guide. In Thrive, Dr Matthew Jacoby works through books of the Bible taking readers on a journey of discovery through the Word. Every 2 weeks we release a new episode of Thrive Deeper which is a discussion around the past fortnights readings in Thrive.

find out more at thrivetoday.tv

thrive

AUG-OCT 2025

Matthew Jacoby (B.Th. B.Litt. Hons, Ph.D.) is the senior pastor at OneHope Church in Geelong, Victoria. He is Lecturer in Christian Thought at the Melbourne School of Theology and he is the lead member of the acclaimed psalms-project band, Sons of Korah.

Matthew is also the author of Deeper Places (Baker, 2013), a book that explores the spirituality of the psalms.

Copyright © Five Pty Ltd 2025
Published 2025 by Five Pty Ltd
PO Box 3055 Geelong West
Victoria 3218 Australia

Executive Editor - Deb Lynn
Development and marketing - Five Pty Ltd
Design and layout - Stephen Cooling
Printed in Singapore by KHL Printing Co. Pte Ltd

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without prior permission in writing of Five Pty Ltd.

Scriptures taken from the Holy Bible, New International Version®, NIV®. Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984, 2011 by Biblica, Inc.™ Used by permission of Zondervan. All rights reserved worldwide. www.zondervan.com The "NIV" and "New International Version" are trademarks registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office by Biblica, Inc.™

THIS ISSUE

thrive

AUG-OCT 2025

REVELATION

— our firm hope

In this issue of Thrive we will be delving into the most complex book of the Bible, the book of Revelation. My aim will be to transcend the complexities by drawing out the central meaning of the text and to apply its amazing message to our lives. Revelation is not a puzzle to solve. It is more like a piece of abstract art that seeks to impact us with its symbols and pictures without giving away more than God wants to give us. The book of Revelation is an exhilarating ride for sure, so join me as we explore these remarkable visions of the apostle John.

MJ

LIGHT IN THE DARK

Revelation 1:1-3

FRIDAY
1 AUG

The book of Revelation is a collection of very dramatic and cryptic visions given by God to the apostle John while he was in exile on the island of Patmos around 95AD. God wanted to show John “what must soon take place” (1:1). This was a dark time for the church. They had been persecuted before, now they were being persecuted again and they had every reason to believe that this would continue in the future. It wasn’t a good prognosis for the embattled Christians. It was into this dark situation that the light of these revelations shine. It is often in the darkest times that we see the light most clearly. I think of all the people in the Biblical stories who encountered God in dark times: Moses, David, Daniel and others. If you are in a dark place right now, then according to the Bible, you are in the best place to find God. John was imprisoned on the island of Patmos and, as a leader and shepherd of the church, he no doubt would have been very concerned about the fate of his flock. Would they survive these persecutions? Would the light of God’s church be snuffed out? The Roman authorities were doing their best to squash the Christian movement, and they were fearfully good at this sort of thing. So, God reveals to John that these events are part of a bigger spiritual battle. The message of the book is simple: we win in the end. There is light at the end of our tunnel.

Read Revelation 1:1-3

Ask God to reveal himself more to you.

2/3 AUG

weekend

Thinking About Interpretation

— 2 Peter 1:12-21

Reading the Bible is no easy matter. It is a collection of books from a vastly different culture in a distant period of history. This, of course, is the beauty of the Bible. It testifies to an ancient path, trodden, tried and tested over thousands of years. Its truths are timeless. However, they are given in a certain cultural form. I have come to love the literary forms of the Bible. They are colourful and emotive. The use of symbols and metaphor preserves a sense of mystery and points to something ultimately ineffable. In our time we tend to prefer cold hard facts. But the Bible, though always factual, is more concerned with meaning and affect. Biblical writing is also intensely self-referential: you cannot understand a text if you don't know what has come before. The meaning of a text is in its role within the whole unfolding drama of the Biblical story. The authors created theological patterns, recurring themes and repeated narrative paradigms that build a cumulative vision of truth. And it all culminates in the book of Revelation. The Book of Revelation is the ultimate challenge when it comes to Biblical interpretation. But we must not treat it like a puzzle to be solved. It is intentionally cryptic because it wants to veil mysteries as it reveals truths. We should focus then on the core truths that the visions convey. Don't just read the Bible. Savour it. Become a student of the Bible. Study it. And, most importantly, live it.

Read 2 Peter 1:12-21. Ask God to help you understand his Word.

John makes it clear that this message comes from another place. It comes from heaven, and it is the account of the climax of a heavenly invasion that has already begun. God is establishing his Kingdom on earth now and that process will culminate in the return of Christ. The more the Kingdom comes into the world in this present age, the more polarised the world will become because the brighter the light, the darker the shadows become. In Matthew 13:24-30 Jesus likened the Kingdom of God to a crop of wheat and the seeds of Satan to weeds. He predicted that the weeds will grow beside the wheat until, at the end of this age, God will send his angels to weed out of his Kingdom everything that does evil (Matthew 13:41). This is what we shall see in the book of Revelation. The church at the time was experiencing an overt manifestation of evil as their presence in the world polarised people. God wanted to remind them that their heavenly invasion would be successful despite the opposition. God's Kingdom would come in this age, at the end of which Jesus would return to his Kingdom, purge all evil from the earth and usher in the age of the new heavenly earth (Revelation 21-22). Let us be reminded that we are the foot-soldiers of God. We are here to vanquish darkness with light, turmoil with peace, hatred with love and evil with justice. That is your mission if you choose to accept it.

Read Revelation 1:4-8

Ask God to make you shine more brightly as a witness for him.

TUESDAY
5 AUG

THE EXALTED CHRIST

Revelation 1:9-20

John was very close to Jesus, in fact, in his gospel, he referred to himself as ‘the beloved disciple’ because he was one of Jesus’ closest companions. Here, John meets Jesus again but in a vastly different form than he knew him over 60 years earlier. Here, John meets the same Jesus that Daniel saw: “In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshipped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed” (Daniel 7:13-14). When John saw this Jesus, he was overwhelmed by such power and glory, so much so that he could not stand in his presence. It is this Jesus who is the main character in the events about to be described and this is the significance of this vision. John had met the lowly Jesus who had stooped down to love humankind. Now he was meeting Jesus the sovereign Lord and Judge of the earth. The lowly Jesus has come, but now the majestic Jesus is coming. John had nothing to fear, however, because he had responded to the call of the lowly Jesus. So the judge was for him, not against. If you follow the lowly Jesus down into humble service then you will be exalted by the majestic Jesus.

Read Revelation 1:9-20

Recommit yourself to the service of Christ.

The Jesus that John saw in his vision was not distant and disinterested in his people. John saw him standing among seven golden lampstands which represent the seven churches that John was addressing in his letter. Jesus had said that he would always be with his people (Matthew 28:20). The very first vision that John received was a vision of Jesus standing in the midst of his church. Not only was it Jesus that John saw but it was Jesus in all his glory and power. Each of the aspects of Jesus' manifestation here in Revelation 1 say something profound, not only about who Jesus is, but what he is doing, or prepared to do, right now in the midst of his church. There is authority (the robe), divine wisdom (the white hair), penetrating vision (fiery eyes), and pure power (bronze). His voice is powerful, and his word comes forth like a sharp sword. The Christian movement may have many opponents, but there are no competitors because nothing can rival the mission of Jesus in this world. If only we would believe this more fervently and shed our timidity! The first recorded corporate prayer of the Christian church (Acts 4:24ff) was a prayer for boldness in the face of opposition. And God answered this prayer by shaking the very foundations of the building that the Christians prayed in. We have every reason to be bold in our Christian witness. God is at work in the world, and he wants to work through you if you are willing. Are you willing?

Read Revelation 1:9-20 again.

Ask God to give you greater boldness.

THURSDAY

7 AUG

LETTERS TO THE CHURCHES: THIS AGAINST YOU

Revelation 2

If Jesus sent a letter to you, what would he say? If he sent a letter to your church, what would he commend and what would he decry. Throughout these seven letters to the seven churches of Asia Minor (present day Türkiye) we have two repeated phrases. The first is, “I know your deeds”. The second is, “I have this against you”. Jesus was not condemning these people in saying this. He was chastening them in love. However, there is something soberingly disturbing about the combination of these phrases. That Jesus might have something against us, is not something we think about a lot. But we should think about this. Because, if Jesus has something against you, that must necessarily be the most urgent thing you need to know. There is probably something in your life that grieves Jesus right now. At least, it is safer to assume there is rather than assume there is not. And, if Jesus is grieved, then it is only because he loves you. But don't take this love for granted and use it as an excuse to do nothing. That would amount to a rejection of Jesus' role in your life. Whatever problems are preoccupying you at the moment, none is more urgent than the fact that Jesus might have something against you. So, take some time, now and regularly, to reflect on what Jesus might be grieved by in your life. What might Jesus hold against you? Acknowledge this before him, seek forgiveness and ask him to help you move forwards.

Read Revelation 2

Do what I have suggested.

LETTERS TO THE CHURCHES: EARS TO HEAR

FRIDAY
8 AUG

Revelation 3

Yesterday we looked at a couple of the repeated phrases in Jesus' seven letters to the seven churches of Asia Minor. Today I'd like to focus on the other repeated phrase, and this one is repeated at the end of every letter: "Whoever has ears, let them hear what the Spirit says to the churches." What does it mean to "have ears"? In short, it means to be willing to hear Jesus' voice. Our attention is always selective. There are many things we could think about and give attention to at any given time. We therefore make choices to focus on some things and accordingly 'block out' other things. One of the things we most readily block out is our own faults. It might seem easiest to believe we are doing well, even when we are not. But this is not an easy way to live. It is disastrous. One of the most important spiritual disciplines is that of confession. We must regularly reflect on and confess our faults to God. Jesus will forgive us and lead us out of our personal flaws, but we must acknowledge them and bring them to him for that to happen. If Jesus has "something against you" (as the repeated phrase in these letters goes) then you need to know this more than anything. So be intentional about giving attention to this. You probably already know what Jesus is grieved by in your life. Are you willing to give that your attention and do something about it? That is what it means to 'have ears to hear'.

Read Revelation 3

Reflect on and confess your sins to God.